FUNERAL WILL BE IN HARTFORD CITY

Sad Rites for the Rev. George Sheldon, Rushville Minister, Will be Held Sunday Afternoon

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL ATTEND.

Paralysis, Induced by Spinal Injuries Develops From Accident Near Fort Wayne Monday

The Rev. George F. Sheldon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city, died at one thirty yesterday afternoon at the Hope Methodist hospital in Ft. Wayne, after being fatally injured in an automobile accident 15 miles north of that city Monday afternoon, and funeral services will be conducted in Hartford City Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, with burial being made in Albion, Mich.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon was 53 years old last April and came here last November from Hartford City, and was installed as pastor of the local church, where he had accomplished much during his short stay here.

Following the accident word received here was to the effect that he was not seriously injured, having received a fractured leg and two broken ribs, but internal complications arose which caused paralysis, induced by a hemorrhage of the spine. One of the broken ribs had also pierced his lung and crowded the vicinity of the heart.

The remains were removed last night from the hospital in Ft. Wayne to the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. Mabel Hill in Hartford City. The funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Presbyterian church in that city, and on Monday morning the remains will be shipped to Albion, Mich., for interment.

Church services at the church here Sunday, including the Sunday School, have been called off, and those who will attend the funeral services, have been requested to meet at the church at eight o'clock Sunday morning, and the delegation leave in a body at that hour for Hartford City.

The details of the accident at first were lacking, but today it was learned that the Rev. and Mrs. Sheldon, accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon's aged mother, who is 76 years old, were enroute in their automobile from Michigan to this city, and when within 15 miles from Ft. Wayne, Mr. Sheldon attempted to pass another car, which was coming toward him, and in so doing slipped off of the road, and down a slight embankment.

In attempting to get back on the highway, he put on too much power, and the wheels failed to offer the resistance, and forced the machine upside down, throwing Mr. Sheldon out and pinning him underneath the running board.

Mrs. Sheldon was riding in the front seat and her mother was alone in the rear seat, and both escaped without injury. Mrs. Sheldon stated that their machine was being driven slowly and when they attempted to pass the on-coming car, the Rev. Mr. Sheldon became confused and got too near the edge of the road, and went down along side of the road, and he thought that he could get back on the road on his own power. The accident happened Monday afternoon.

When it was found that he was painfully injured he was taken immediately to the hospital in Fort Wayne, where his injuries were dressed, and were said to be painful but not of a serious nature.

It was presumed by friends here that his condition would improve rapidly, and it was not known until yesterday morning that the internal complications had developed, when Miss Helen Sheldon, the daughter in high school here, was notified to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cowing accompanied the daughter this morning to Hartford City, making the trip in an automobile. A telephone message today from Mrs. Sheldon expressed her regret.

VOTERS EXACT AGE MUST BE GIVEN

State Election Board Rules That Men and Women Can't Vote if Right Age Was Omitted

"OVER 21" WON'T SUFFICE

Another Chance on October 4 Will Enable Voters to Register Again—Few Instances Noted Here

Women's proverbial disinclination of telling their age, which was shown in many instances here Saturday when they registered, will cause them to register over again on October 4, in order to qualify for the ballot on November 2, is the decision reached by the state election committee which met yesterday in Indianapolis and prepared an interpretation of the age feature of the registration law.

The state election board met on request of several county chairmen, who reported that many women refused to give their exact age when registering, and instead of putting down the age, stated that they were "over 21," "old enough to vote" or "21, plus."

In Rush county, as in many counties, the opinion prevailed that it was not necessary for a person to put down their exact age, although men at previous registrations never hesitated in giving their ages.

Only a very few men failed to give their exact ages in this county last Saturday, it is understood, but the same ruling will apply to men, and those who failed to give their

MUST ENTER PLEAS IN THE MORNING

Four Men Held in Connection With Knecht Clothing Store Robbery Will Plead in the Morning

TWO ARE IN JAIL HERE

Four alleged criminals will be arraigned before Judge Sparks in circuit court in the morning at nine o'clock, when each of them are to enter a plea, to the charge of burglarizing the Knecht Clothing store here this summer. The four men are Russell Shepperd, Fred and Ed Beemer, all of Muncie, and James Martin of Winchester.

The two Beemer brothers are now out of jail on $3,000 bond furnished in each case, but the other two are in jail, having been held here since their arrest during the Delaware county fair. Judge Sparks ordered them the first of the week to enter a plea on or before Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Martin, it is said, has admitted his guilt in a confession, and will probably enter a plea of guilty. The two Beemer brothers have employed an attorney and will probably put up a fight for their freedom. It is not known what course Shepperd will take. A few weeks ago a jail delivery was caught by Sheriff Jones, in which the prisoners blamed each other for the attempted escape.

IS EQUIPPED TO MEET PROBLEMS

F. C. Munroe, General Manager of American Red Cross, Speaks at Lake Division Conference

Dramatic Pageant, "The Red Cross of Peace" and Numerous Exhibits Features at Cincinnati

Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—"The American Red Cross has developed, in its experience up to the present a knowledge of actual conditions, at home and abroad, a sense of proportion and a skill and ingenuity in meeting specific problems which cannot be overestimated for value," Frederick C. Munroe, general manager of the American Red Cross summed up in this manner the work facing the Red Cross yesterday, when speaking at the opening session of a two day conference of Lake Division Red Cross chapter delegates in Cincinnati. "The Red Cross has a body of workers and administrators who have been tried out by the hardest kind of experience and who are willing to carry on the humanitarian work of peace time as faithfully as they did in the war years.

The conference has attracted representatives from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Lake Division headquarters called the meeting in order to give chapter people a broad view of peace time work as it is being carried on by other chapters in the division. Speakers from National Headquarters, Division Headquarters and chapters are taking part in the program. Several organizations allied with the Red Cross in carrying on post-war work have speakers on the program.

Dr. E. A. Peterson, director of Health Service at National Headquarters explained how a chapter can set up a model Health Center. The relation of Junior Red Cross to the schools was the subject discussed by James N. Rule, National director of Junior Red Cross and by Supt. Vernon Riegel of the Ohio State Department of Education. MOTION PICTURE STAR IS VICTIM OF POISON

WAS TOURING IN EUROPE

Paris, Sept. 10.—Olive Thomas, formerly widely known on the American musical comedy stage and for several years a motion picture star, died at 11 o'clock today in the American Hospital at Neuilly. She was taken to that institution last Sunday suffering from the effects of a poisonous solution swallowed early that day by mistake, according to Dr. Joseph Choate, the American physician in charge of the case.

Recently Miss Thomas, who came to Europe with her husband, Jack Pickford several weeks ago, had suffered from nervous depression. it was said. First aid was promptly given her by Mr. Pickford when he returned Sunday to the hotel and found his wife in a serious condition and every possible effort was made at the hospital to counteract the effects of the poison, but without avail.

New York, Sept. 10.—Reports reaching the office of the Selznick moving picture corporation here today stated that Olive Thomas, motion picture star, died in Paris today. No confirmation of the report has been received by the Selznick officials, though a cable from Paris early today stated that Miss Thomas' doctors had given up hopes of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Feudner motored to Middletown this afternoon and visited relatives.

STATE GOAL WAS SET AT $450,000

John Bryson, Chairman of State Ways and Means Committee, Tells of Plans in This State

ONLY $39,000 IS RAISED

Upham Testifies That National Fund For G. O. P. Party Will Not Total $4,879,000

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 10.—Republican campaign funds for national, state, senatorial and congressional campaigns will total $4,879,000 if all the money is raised which is sought, Fred Upham, treasurer of the republican national committee testified today before the senate committee investigating funds.

That sum and not $15,000,000 as charged by Governor James Cox represents the absolute maximum of the republican fund raising plan, Upham stated.

Upham resumes the stand to deny in detail the charges of Governor Cox and E. M. Moore, Cox's personal representative here.

John Bryson, of Brazil, Ind., chairman of the Indiana state ways and means committee, said the plan in Indiana was to raise $100,000 for the republican national committee and $200,000 more for the state work. Less than $39,000 was raised, Bryson declared.

The largest contribution was $2,000. The city sums were based on the total of about $450,000 as a means of stimulating workers but with no expectation of getting it.

Bryson was asked whether the $1,000 rule was followed. He said William Irwin, of Columbus, Ind., gave $2,000 but that no other contribution exceeded $1,000.

Since August 26, Upham disclosed $250,000 has been added to the republican contributions making the total raised to date since the National convention $1,249,000, of which $850,000 was for the national committee and the remainder for the state.

"I still have got to raise $2,150,000 of the $3,079,000 budget," Upham said.

3 DIFFERENT LAND CASES FILED TODAY

Suits Are to Quiet Title, to Partition and Sell Real Estate and to Show an Accounting

PITMAN SEEKS A CHANGE

Three cases were filed in circuit court today, which involve real estate, none of the cases relating to each other. This morning Ralph Pitman, plaintiff in a $10,000 damage suit against Glenn Sommerville, a high school boy of this city, filed a petition in the court, asking for a change of venue from this county.

Pitman is the father of the small boy that was instantly killed in Glenwood last spring by an automobile driven by Sommerville, and the $10,000 damage suit was filed on a complaint for the death of the baby. No action was taken on the petition today.

Chase Pea brought suit today against Maud Jones and her husband Clyde Jones, Ed Pea and his wife Minnie Pea, Rena Jackson and her husband Frank Jackson, in a suit for partition and sale of real estate in this city. The complaint says that the property cannot be divided in shares, and requests that it be sold. The property is said to be valued at $800.

Sarah Ida Murdock has filed suit against George O. Anderson and Emily J. Anderson, on a complaint for partition an accounting for rents and profits of real estate. The land involved contains 45 acres, and the complaint is based on two paragraphs.

William O. Wright filed suit against Elva Herbst on a complaint to quiet the title of some real estate.

OFFICERS KILL A CONVICT

Maple Cox, Escaped Prisoner, Is Shot at Muncie.

(By United Press)

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 10.—Maple Cox, 25, was fatally wounded here today when shot by a policeman after attempting to escape from the Indoorf store here, into which he and "Jim" Powers had broken. Both were escaped convicts from the state reformatory at Jeffersonville. Two detectives and two patrolmen figured in the chase, all of whom opened fire. Power who escaped is believed to be hiding and injured.

The two convicts escaped from Jeffersonville on August 30. They stole a Ford automobile and went to Muncie, where the former's mother lives. They raided a grocery store last Wednesday night.

ORGANIZATION FOR PICNIC THOROUGH

With Township Chairman as Nucleus Committee of Fifteen is Built up in Each Township

WILL MEET HERE SATURDAY

Ministers and Postoffice Employees, Including Rural Mail Carriers, Are All Invited

There is no lack of organization to make the county picnic at the city park in Rushville, Friday, September 17, a success. The Rush County Farmers Association, which is sponsor for the affair, at which the members will entertain the business men of Rush county, has not overlooked a single detail in preparing for the dinner.

The dinner serving committee, of which Will L. Brown of this city is chairman, must bear the brunt of the work, and the committee has been organized carefully, with the township chairman as the nucleus and with helpers appointed so that every spot in the county will be touched. It is this committee which will meet in the court house at two o'clock Saturday afternoon to prepare for soliciting the food and serving the dinner.

Mrs. Bert Davison, living south of Rushville, has been appointed the women's chairman for the committee, which was formed in this way.

Each township chairman appointed a woman chairman for his township and the woman chairman in turn appointed four assistants, selected on Page Six

SEARCH IS MADE FOR BANKER'S DAUGHTER

Louise Fletcher, Daughter of Prominent Indianapolis Banker, Disappears From Summer Home.

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—Stoughton A. Fletcher, an Indianapolis capitalist and banker today instituted a search for his daughter, Louise, 17, who disappeared from the Fletcher summer home at Gloucester, Mass., after donning overalls and clipping her hair.

Mrs. Fletcher went East today to aid in the search for her daughter. Mr. Fletcher expressed the belief that the girl's disappearance is part of a prank in which some of her girl friends took part.

Police departments in the Eastern cities have been requested to search for the girl. And officials of Rocky Neck have been notified to search for the girl, for it is thought probably she might have drifted out to sea in a skiff.

According to word received here the girl left her summer home and was seen by fishermen near Rocky Neck, more than a mile from home. After clipping her hair and donning overalls the girl shouldered a pair of oars and walked in the direction of Rocky Neck.

CITY TAX RATE, TO BE $2.055 IN 1921

Total Levies Are Also Computed For Six Townships Whose Trustees Certify Rates

ALL BUT ONE SHOW INCREASE

Rushville Township is Single Exception, Being Reduced 4 Cents—Rushville City up 35 Cents

The tax rate in the city of Rushville will be $2.055 in 1921, providing the state tax rate is the figure which has been reported in the Indianapolis papers, and providing none of the rates which comprise the levy is changed on a hearing by the county council. The city rate is increased 35 cents.

Six township rates have also been computed. It is impossible to figure what the all township rates will be until the township trustees have certified their levies to the county auditor.

The rates in the six townships, whose trustees have certified their rates to the auditor, and the increase or decreases in each case are as follows:

Rushville, $1.11, a decrease of four cents; Richland, $1.22, an increase of 32 cents; Walker, $1.64, an increase of 56 cents; Posey, $1.40; an increase of 34 cents; Center, $1.06, an increase of 18 cents; Washington, $1.135, an increase of 34 cents.

The Rushville rate is arrived at by adding the state rate of eighteen cents, the county rate of 28 cents, the school city rate of 81 cents, the city rate of 68 cents, the township tax levied in Rushville which amounts to 3 1/2 cents and the gravel road bond and interest tax of seven cents.

The city rate is composed of 60 cents corporation tax, four cents street oiling and four cents city bonds. The township rate is two cents township tax, one cent township poor and a half cent library tax.

The county rate is composed of 17 cents and two mills county tax and eight mills flood bonds. The school city rate is composed of 45 cents tuition tax, 30 cents special school fund and six cents school bonds. The state rate has never been certified to the auditor here but Indianapolis newspapers have reported it to be 18 cents, the same as last year.

The tuition tax in Posey township was increased from 14 to 25 cents, the special school tax from 18 to 27, the road tax from six to seven, and the township tax was left the same, three cents. The township poor tax of a half cents and the library tax of the same amount were left unchanged. The gravel road bond and interest tax was reduced from 32 to 31 cents.

The tuition tax in Walker township was increased from 15 to 30 cents, the special school tax from 25 to 40 cents, the road tax from seven to fourteen, the township tax from one and a half to three and a half and the school bond tax from seven to ten cents. The library tax of one cent was cut in two and the gravel road bond and interest rate was reduced from eighteen to six cents. The vocational education tax was raised from one and a half to nine cents.

In Rushville township the tuition tax was raised from fourteen to eighteen cents, but the special school tax of seventeen cents, the road tax of six cents, the township poor tax of a half cent and the bond tax of thirteen cents were left at the same figure. The township tax was raised from one and a half to two cents and the gravel road bond and interest tax was cut from thirty to seven cents.

In Center township the tuition tax was raised from nine to sixteen cents, the special school tax from twelve to 22, the road tax from six to nine and the school bond tax from five to six. The township tax of two cents and the township poor tax of one cent were left the same. The gravel road bond and interest rate was reduced from 21 to 20 cents.

In Washington township the tuition tax was raised from nine to sixteen cents.

FRENCH HEELS PASS OUT OF EXISTENCE

Milady's Foot Hits The Ground Above a Low or Military Heel, According to Shoe Dealers

IT IS NOT A PASSING FANCY

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—Milady's foot hits the ground above a low or military heel, according to Indianapolis shoe dealers.

French heels—the high ones with graceful curves—are passe.

The wearer herself sounded their death knell this time. Heretofore the manufacturers have determined the styles of shoes as well as other clothing.

"Manufacturers realize that the low heel craze of the women is not just a passing fancy," James C. Young, head of the shoe department of an Indianapolis store, said today.

"They are unloading their stocks of high heels as rapidly as possible, sometimes at a great sacrifice. One Indianapolis dealer bought 17,000 pairs of high heeled shoes at $2.25 a pair. He kept 12,000 pairs for retail in his own store at a greatly reduced price and turned the remainder over to another store."

Young said the women this year are making a run on the shoes of more durability. He said there is a demand for the kind with a double thickness of leather extending from one side of the foot, across the top and back on the other side to the instep with the outer thickness perforated in fancy little designs.

ages, must also register again on October 4, in order to vote in November.

The ruling will no doubt cause much confusion among the voters, and party workers, as the names of all those who registered Saturday have now been certified to the auditor and their names placed on the poll books. It will be necessary to revise the books, and cut off the names where the exact age was not given.

Party workers will also be handicapped, as it had been planned to secure the registration of all men and women who had not registered Saturday, but now it will take additional work to ascertain the number who will be cut off of the registration books for failure to give their exact ages.

The opinion yesterday was given out by W. W. Spencer, Democrat, and William H. Thompson, Republican, who, with the Governor as the ex-officio member, comprise the state board of election commissioners. Maurice E. Tennant, as a member of the state board's legal committee, also concurs in the opinion.

It is the holding of the commissioners that the law requires each voter to give his or her exact age. They contend that the purpose of the requirement is to establish identification of the voter as well as to ascertain that the voter is of legal age. They assert that the giving of the wrong age might permit fraudulent voting. Should a man or woman of 50 years, for example, register as "21, plus," it might be possible, suggests the commissioners for some young voter to go to the poll and vote in the name of an older person who had given his or her name incorrectly.

"We beg to state that it is our opinion that a proper compliance with the registration law of Indiana," reads the opinion of the commissioners, "requires that an applicant for registration shall state in writing his or her age on the last preceding anniversary of his or her birthday. It is not considered as sufficient to state that the applicant was 21 years or over on a certain date prior to the date of registration. See Sec. 10 of the registration law of Indiana."

JOHN C. INGRAM DIES.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett received word today of the sudden death of John C. Ingram of Chicago. Mr. Ingram formerly lived in Indianapolis and had often visited in this city, and was the father-in-law of Mrs. Horace Ingram, formerly Miss Martha Marr Hogsett of this city. Mr. Ingram was president of an insurance organization in Chicago, and his death was quite a shock to the friends in this city.

Trio Binds Man and Wife to Chairs and Escape in Auto.

Three bandits tonight blew the safe in the farm house of August Scholes near here and got away with $8,000.

According to Harry J. Frundt, county attorney, the loot consisted of $4,500 in currency, $1,100 in Liberty bonds, $900 in War Savings Stamps, $1,500 in a Certificate of Deposit. Papers, including the deed to the farm, fire insurance policy on the buildings and stock and personal papers were taken.

Cash in on this farmer's experience and put your currency in the bank, for the $1,500 in a Certificate of Deposit is still his and earning interest for him. No one has ever lost a cent they deposited with us; also, a box in our Safe Deposit Vault is far stronger than any home or office safe.

Cox as Mud Slinger

The New York Journal of Commerce, which labels itself as an independent, but which has given every evidence for the past few years of being Democratic, is to be commended for its criticism of Governor Cox's "proofs" of a gigantic "slush" fund being raised by the Republican party. The Journal of Commerce does not swallow the "proofs" as avidly as does Frank Cobb, of the New York World, a paper which was pledged by the late Joseph Pulitzer "always to fight demagogues of all parties." "Firmly and positively, it is likely, will the electorate refuse to permit the red herring to be drawn across the political trail in this campaign," says the Journal of Commerce. "There are important issues to be settled. It wants to hear the candidates discuss them. . . The public does not want to hear this sort of stuff. . . The progress of the present campaign is emphasizing the disgust that many men are feeling with present tendencies in American politics." Considering the conservatism of the paper, that is a smart rap on the head of the Tammany candidate. In this connection, it is to be noted that the New York Times (Dem.) seems also to be somewhat out of patience with the antics of the Democratic candidate. The feeling is pervasive that Cox has sought by resort to a campaign of mud-slinging to distract public attention from the fact that as a historian he is a misfit, and as a statesman he is a false alarm.

The Laugh on the Profiteer

Joy reigns in the heart of the American housewife.

She is mightily pleased—even tickled—and all because of sugar.

Every day she reads in the daily papers of how the falling sugar market is squeezing the profiteering gamblers who loaded up on that staple and have been withholding it from the market in order to compel her to pay exorbitant prices and clean up fortunes for themselves in a few months time.

She reads that many of these gambling hoarders have lost large sums of money through the slump in price, others are in financial distress, and some are on the verge of ruin.

And she smiles. Their frantic wails are as sweet to her ears as is the taste of honey to a hungry bear.

Joy be with you. Laugh on, and

CAMPAIGN PICKUPS

Newsy Notes Of The Major Presidential Candidates.

On Harding's Front Porch

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The Hardings have opened a lodging house at Marion. They have more guests dropping in than they can take care of at their own home and local hotel facilities are inadequate, so a private house near the Harding home has been leased for the campaign where arriving celebrities can be put up for the night.

Senator Harding has been riding around in a little four cylinder automobile lately. His big high-powered car had to be sent to the shop for repairs.

A presidential candidate gets a lot of knocks but he also gets many other things. Every mail brings a box of cigars, a big carton of cigarettes, a watermelon or a chicken for Mrs. Harding's table.

Harding's stenographers are getting lots of candy out of it. More come than Mrs. Harding can eat so she sends the rest to the girls.

Entertaining a well-known Democrat as a personal guest recently, Harding took occasion to tell an old mule story used by stump speakers in the days when politics was not so lady-like as now.

"The Democratic party," this orator declared, "is like the mule. It has neither pride of ancestry nor hope of posterity."

Harding does not like to discuss his golf scores. If he wins he feels unsportsmanlike in boasting; and if he loses, he waits for someone else to tell it. But newspapermen have discovered how to find out. Harding makes it a rule on the links to smoke a cigarette only when he wins a hole. "Senator, how many cigarettes did you smoke?" is the favorite laugh heartily. A lot of folks are laughing with you.

The wag of a dog's tail invariably means friendship, but the wag of a human hand often covers a world of secret enmity. And still, we wouldn't care to state that the dog is more to be relied upon in his actions than mankind.

In future, however, there will be some consolation left to the defeated question as he comes in from the eighteenth hole.

From the Cox Stump

By HERBERT W. WALKER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The publicity agent, such a familiar figure in most presidential campaigns, has not yet appeared in the Cox camp. The governor is his own "agent" and correspondents have been agreeably surprised to find that they do not have to knock over a long line of "flunkies" to get the governor's view on an important question, when speed is necessary.

When the train on which Governor Cox was riding recently stopped at Howard, O., an old man came running toward the rear platform almost shouting toward the rear platform almost former shouted to his friend as he introduced him to Cox:

"Take a good look at him, John, for he's going to lay your man low!"

If there is a shortage of fried chicken during the next few weeks, the Republicans probably can blame Governor Cox. On five out of his seven stump visits, the local reception committees gave him big chicken dinners.

Hecklers, the terror of most public speakers, apparently are the delight of Cox. In every speech he watches for every sign of heckling, and several times has invited it.

The governor apparently has no "Prince Alberts" in his traveling trunk. For all of his speeches he has worn a plain, business suit.

Stogies and a little black pipe are the governor's favorite "smokes".

Cox always shakes hand with the engineer and fireman of his when he reaches his destination.

candidate. In the absence of babies he can kiss the voters.

Any person can give good advice, but it's quite a different thing to set a good example.

Life is full of disappointments only to those who permit themselves to feel disappointed.

If we ever reach the point where automobiles are run on wind some politicians will outdistance even themselves.

In some future generation, we presume, a violent and determined campaign will be launched in favor of equal opportunities for males.

Bumps Into the Real Thing

TO PRODUCE NEW BASKETBALL TEAM

Feeney, Expert Basketball Player, Will Organize an all Star Five This Year

INCLUDES EMROES PLAYERS

Team Will Meet Only Best College Teams in State and Middle-west and East

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—Plans are well under way for forming one of the greatest combinations of basketball players ever brought together in the central ws. However several prominent clubs as well as sporting goods companies have offered to back the team financially.

The team, which is still without a name, will be seen in many cities in all parts of the state during the basketball season which will open about December 1. However, the all-star combination will play most of its games on the home floor.

Al Feeney, former Notre Dame university star, and later professional football and basketball player, is the man who is behind the new all-Star team and he already has a combination of about ten players from which to develop his quintet.

Feeney will play the guard position as he has done on the Em-Roes for a number of years. The new line-up will include the stars of the Em-Roes team combined with the former college basketball players who have completed their allotted time on a college team.

It was only natural that the Purdue University team which was last year probably the best in the Big Ten conference even if Chicago did claim the conference championship on the percentage column basis, could furnish many of the athletes for Feeney's all-star combination. Campbell, Tilson and Church, all former Purdue stars will be with the team.

Campbell solves the center problem which is probably the most difficult position to fill. Church who covers the floor faster than any basketball player ever seen in this state will play forward but could be used as guard. Tilson, the tall forward who is a sure basket getter, will work well with his old teammate. Schoeman and Kline last year's Em-Roes forwards will be in the combination.

Carlisle, the star of the DePauw university team will be with the all star quintet and could be used at forward if Church is shifted to guard.

Only the best athletic club teams of the state and the country and the leading college quintets will be included in the schedule.

An eastern trip will be made in which the all-star quintet will play at Rayels at Detroit; the White Ants at Cleveland; the Orioles at Buffalo; the New York Centrals at Rochester and the New York Giants at New York City.

Celluloid.
Celluloid, from which many toilet tissues and imitations of ivory are made, is composed from the cellulose found in cotton cloth or raw cotton. It is treated with a solution of nitric acid which forms it into a pulp very much like paper pulp. It is then washed with water, which removes most of the acid. It is partially hardened and camphor gum mixed with it, then it is rolled into sheets and thoroughly dried. To manipulate it, it is softened by steam and then hardened by drying.

$500,000,000 GOLD IS LOST BY EUROPE

Statements From Documents Show Total Gold in Banks at Beginning of 1914 $3,764,300,000

NET INCREASE IS $2,005,100

(By United Press)
London, (By Mail).—Approximately 500,000,000 dollars' worth of gold coin disappeared from the coffers of the European belligerent powers between December, 1913, and December, 1919, according to statistics compiled for the League of Nations International Financial Conference to be held in Brussels September 24.

Carefully prepared statement from submitted documents of sixteen European countries show that the total gold in banks and circulation at the beginning of 1914 was the equivalent of $3,764,300,000. At the beginning of 1920 the total was approximately $3,240,200,000. The European neutral countries Holland, Switzerland, Spain, Norway, Denmark, Sweden and the pseudo-belligerent Greece had increased their holdings by $722,700,000 in gold while the belligerents, Great Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, Belgium, Roumania, Germany and Austria-Hungary showed a loss of $1,246,800,000.

The United States gold supply which was $2,930,000,000 at the close of 1913 jumped to $4,138,000,000 by 1920 while Japan showed a gain of $823,000,000 over a similar period, or only 430 millions less than that of the United States.

The net increase of gold money and bullion in circulation as money in the five years amounted to $2,005,100. Although gold production dropped to 80 per cent of normal during the war period, the increase is explained by the fact that many countries, especially those of Central Europe melted up vast quantities of gold plate in order to carry on the struggle.

GO TO MARION SATURDAY

Thirteenth District Republicans Will Visit Senator Harding

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 10.—Arrangements have been completed by the Thirteenth District Republicans for their Pilgrimage to Marion, O., Saturday to greet Senator Harding at his home. During the last few days representatives of the Committee in charge of the excursion have been visiting leading Republicans in the other counties of the district and they have reported that delegations from each county will make the trip.

One of the notable things about the excursion is the interest that has been manifested by the women voters. There are indications that as many women will go as men.

A special train has been chartered. It will leave South Bend at 7 A. M. and will stop for passengers at Mishawaka, Elkhart, Goshen and Kendallville.

Stop Buying So Much Gas!

The Overland Sedan

Cost by the Month, Saves by the Mile!
Eats Up Distance, Saves Dollars!

On a railroad, it is the trip and not the ticket that completes the transaction; and it is so with an automobile. No institution can build up good-will on good-byes.

The Willys-Overland Organization is just as interested in Overland owners after they have bought as before they are sold.

Saving you money on up-keep is just as important as saving you money on the price of the car. And when gasoline began to go up four years ago, word went out to our designers that Overland owners must be protected, and the price of gasoline must be brought down—but not at the price of comfort!—get that, for that was the crux of the problem.

Hypothetically, it was impossible, and yet—

Under stimulus of a great public need, and spurred on by the pride of a great reputation, the designers of the Overland have Done the Thing that Couldn't be Done!—

they have unraveled still another insoluble secret of mechanics, by creating that marvel of mechanism, the new Suspension Triplex Springs, permitting the use of light alloy steels for economy, and acting as a pneumatic buffer between the Road and You!

What the new Overland car and its remarkable improvements cost to create we shall never know. But we do know that it cost $6,000,000 to get ready to incorporate them into the new Overland car, and that the Overland car was a great car before these improvements were initiated and adopted.

So it seems a fair conclusion:: That an institution that will voluntarily upset the ramifications of one of the greatest automobile manufacturing plants in the world, in order to reduce the gasoline bills of Overland owners, justifies the past, the future, and the immediate confidence of the American people.

Ninety-seven cities recently reported ninety-seven Overland Sedans as averaging 25.2 miles per gallon of gas.

The Tri Kappa sorority will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Miss Fanny Stiers southeast of the city.

Mrs. George Guffin had as her dinner guests today Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Parry and son George of Indianapolis and her house guests, Mrs. Harold Manzy and Mrs. George J. Guffin of Gary, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Endres entertained at Bridge last night for Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore also had several guests at dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Moor.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church held their first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church. A very appropriate program was given and a large attendance was present for the first meeting.

The Sexton Missionary society will hold an all day meeting next Tuesday, September 14. The program will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pratt, which will be conducted between 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. The program will consist of a talk on "New Emphasis on the Use of Money," and Mrs. Agnes Gardner will talk on "Giving." Others on the program are Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Warlick and Mrs. Kendall. Mrs. Carroll Clifton will have charge of the program. At 11:30 a. m. a bountiful pitch-in dinner will be served at the home of Mrs. Pratt and in the afternoon a special program will be given at the church in Sexton. Members of the different societies of the church will be entertained at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Butler Hill celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday afternoon and evening during the hours of 3 to 5 and 7 to 10, at their home in Walnut street, in Carthage. In keeping with the occasion, the home was decorated throughout with French baskets of marigolds, field daisies and golden rod. Small golden bells were given as favors and refreshments of punch and wafers were served. Music was furnished throughout the afternoon and evening by Miss Harriet Rawls at the piano, accompanied by her sister, Miss Jeannette on the violin.

Many guests were present from their home town and also many were present from a distance. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gurley, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Reeves of Greenfield, Ind., Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Porter and daughter Jean of Connersville; Mrs. Fred Holt and Albert Henley of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary G. Murdock of Randolph, Ohio; Mrs. Walter B. Hill of Knightstown; Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Sparks and Judge and Mrs. Will M. Sparks of Rushville; Mrs. Rebecca Buford, sister of Mrs. Hill of Greenfield, and Mrs. C. H. Grant, twin sister of Mr. Hill of Little Rock, Arkansas.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hill remembered them with many beautiful presents.

Nazimova at the Princess
Again Nazimova has come to the screen and carried her audience fairly out of itself by the sheer power of her emotional depths and the finish of her performance. Last evening, at the Princess Theatre, this great Russian star justified once more her right to be acclaimed the world's greatest actress when she appeared in her most recent production, "The Heart of a Child," a photoplay adapted by Charles Bryant from the novel by Frank Danby. The picture will be shown again tonight at the Princess.

To see it is to live through the struggle Sally Snape made against the world's attack, at once so alluring and so sinister, with only the armor of her inborn sense of right to guard her.

The photoplay by Rudolph Bergquist, is exceptionally artistic, as are the special effects by Allen Ruoff. Ray C. Smallwood has displayed unusual abilities in the direction; and those who remember Frank Danby's greatest book in its fiction form will be thankful to Charles Bryant for his intelligent and able adaptations to the screen of the best of it.

"The Amazing Woman"
Who sets the moral code? By what right has one man to lay down a law that others must follow? Has any one the right to do evil that good may come? These are the problems set forth in "The Amazing Woman," the super-feature that comes to the Mystic theatre today. The gripping drama of human emotions has the splendid art of Ruth Clifford, a screen star of the first magnitude, together with the acknowledged ability of Lloyd Carleton in directing her and the large cast of well-known screen artists who have been employed to characterize the vital characters supplied to this story by the author.

"The Amazing Woman" is no ordinary story. It is totally unlike any other photodrama produced in many years. It is chock full of suspense. Nothing in the early part of the picture gives any suggestion of how it is going to end. The story is just as baffling as the woman that is the heroine of the tale. The settings are rich and luxuriant. The locale of the play is laid in New York and suburbs. It depicts life as it really is among the rich, who lead the idle life. Its heroine is graced with beauty and feminine charms such as have led men to go to desperate ends to possess women of this kind. She in her turn capitalizes her personality and magnetism and lures men on to taunt them in the end for failing to achieve their purpose. She is good when she is bad and bad when she is good, and this strange creature is after all the eternal woman who has kept man guessing for all ages.

Nursing explained how the Red Cross conducts its public health nursing activities and made a plea for student nurses to fill the ranks of the profession. W. E. Longfellow, field agent of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps conducted a demonstration of First Aid.

At a dinner meeting Thursday evening, Dr. Thomas E. Green, national director of the Speakers' Bureau delivered an eloquent address on Red Cross Service.

One of the features of the conference was a dramatic pageant "The Red Cross of Peace" staged Thursday evening by 200 members of Cincinnati chapter under direction of Mrs. Ruth M. Worrell of Dayton, Ohio. Adjoining the conference room are exhibits of a Red Cross Health Center, First Aid Teaching exhibit, a Home Service information booth. Red Cross films are being shown continuously throughout the sessions.

In speaking of the meeting, Starr Cadwallar, manager of Lake Division, says, "The conference is destined to have a far reaching effect in Lake Division, bringing, as it does representatives from all parts of the three states for the interchange of ideas and plans."

The local chapter is represented at the meeting by Mrs. Marian M. Jones, secretary; the Rev. L. E. Brown, president, and George C. Wyatt, chairman of the home service committee.

HARD TO WORK IN A WORTHY "SUB"

White Sox And Cubs Find it a Rare Thing to Shift Line-up With a New Player

GOOD "SUBS" ARE JUST LUCK.

Strunk Fit Well For White Sox and Mitchell Supplied Field Position For Cubs

By L. R. CLANCHARD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Some day some axiom-smith will turn out a finished product like this:

"A machine is no greater than its emergency equipment."

It certainly looks true whether you are talking of emergency brakes and spare wheels on autos, an extra piece of chicken for the unexpected caller or a reserve player for a disrupted ball team.

Every ball team has its reserves but only a few have a sub that can step into a regular's job and so deliver that none misses the regular. Every manager would like to have such subs but his desires are vetoed by the lack of stars if not by the club owner's chronic illness—tightening of the purse strings.

"Kid" Gleason this summer had White Sox fans guessing when he grabbed Amos Strunk. "Kid" had a regular outfield going great, and an extra pair of men to pinch hit and alternate in right field. One outfielder became a first baseman and an injury to Nemo Liebold shoved Strunk into the game. The Sox cylinders haven't missed a stroke.

In the same way Fred Mitchell of the Cubs acquired Zeb Terry when it looked that Chicago had a plethora of infield material. Injury came to just the right place to put Terry into the regular list where he has been a whale.

Not all managers have been so wise—or lucky—in their selection of excess help. They had a spare wheel when they needed a tow rope—they weren't set for the particular emergency that chose to land on them.

STATE GOAL WAS SET AT $450,000

Usually he said the eastern portion of the United States provides the bulk of the party funds. This year the East has given $438,000 and the Middle West and the West $811,000.

Upham asserted that the $1,000 limit on the contributions has been very closely adhered to.

ORGANIZATION FOR PICNIC THOROUGH

lecting them not only because of their ability to do things, but with a thought to the location of their home so that every community in the township might be reached. Then each of these four assistants and the woman chairman appointed two assistants, which makes a total of fifteen workers in each township or a total of one hundred and eighty on the committee. The canvass of each township for food will be left to the fifteen women and they will preside at their township tables the day the dinner is served.

Every member of the Rush County Farmers association will be "tagged" that day. Button hole labels have been printed and the name of each member is being written on them. They will be given to the township chairmen at the meeting Saturday and distributed by mail to them. Under this plan there will be no occasion for any member not being properly "labeled."

The merchants will follow the same plan and every one will wear a card bearing his name.

"There is no reason for any farmer not being in on this dinner, which will be the biggest thing ever pulled off in Rushville," said Fred Bell, president of the county association, today. "The only reason for him being left out is that he is not a member and the wisest thing for him to do is to join at once and enjoy the day."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Harrold visited in Indianapolis today and attended the state fair.

FARMERS PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

Officers of State Federation Start
Preliminary Work For Meeting
November 16

WILL BE AT MASONIC TEMPLE

Brown County, Last in State, is Being Organized and Will Join Indiana Organization

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—The preliminary work of getting ready for the second annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations to be held at the Masonic Temple auditorium in this city on November 16 has been started by the officers of the organization. The present indications are that the convention this year will surpass by far any meeting ever held in the state of Indiana by farmers, and there is every reason to believe that the coveted goal of 100 percent organized state with 92 counties officially represented by accredited delegates will have been attained prior to the convention date.

Arrangements have just been completed by the state organizers for the formation of a farmers' association in Brown County. Chas. A. Sims, of Odon, and Joseph Ratliff, of Bloomington, have been assigned by state officers to make a campaign in Brown County this week. The addition of Brown will mean that every county in the state is either organized, all of which has been accomplished in less than two years of activity. The exact date of the birth of the Federation was March 25, 1919.

The first committee work as a preliminary to state convention activities was accomplished during the last week when the special committee appointed by the executive board to draft proposed changes in the state constitution met at headquarters and considered the recommendations it will make. These recommendations for changes in the constitution will be submitted to the board of directors whose approval must be met before it goes to the state convention for ratification. A two-thirds vote of the accredited delegates is necessary to make any change in the constitution. The committee on constitution changes was made up of E. E. Reynolds, Chairman; Scott Meiks, Shelbyville, and E. A. Williams, of Lebanon.

Considerable rivalry among the various county units for leading the state in the way of membership has been reported and there is quite a bit of speculation as to which county will have the greatest official representation in the state convention. The constitution provides for one delegate for every 500 members or major portion thereof in each county, with each county affiliated entitled to at least one delegate regardless of the size of its membership. The latest report is that Hamilton County has surpassed Madison County for first honors in the state with a membership passing the 2,000 mark. Hamilton expect to better this mark and have five voting delegates at the state convention.

Word from John G. Brown, president of the Indiana farmers, who is in California studying various marketing conditions with other farm bureau leaders, is to the effect that a trip was made during the last week into the San Joaquin valley where agriculture closely resembles that of the Central States. At Hanford the delegates learned about a co-operative system of marketing live stock used in that section by farmers. They witnessed a hog auction conducted under the auspices of the California Farm Bureau Marketing Association, which is said to have grown from a few members in three years to an organization which last year marketed $2,000,000 worth of hogs.

Commenting on the plan, President Brown said, "While this auction plan is hardly adapted to the big hog producing sections of the Middle West, where the present central stock yards system already gives us a competitive market. I believe that this California plan could easily be adapted to many sections of the country where such conditions do not prevail. I believe that in the South and the Atlantic states the California plan would work to the advantage of the pork producers."

Gave It To His Little Daughter

Five year old girl had bad case of catarrh in the head, no appetite, weak and pale. Father got great relief himself from Dreco and that is why he gave it to her.

"I got so much good from taking Dreco that I put my little five year old girl to taking it and there is a big difference in her now," said Mr. Willis Baker, the well known concrete contractor of 1318 East Marklin St., Kokomo, Ind.

"I had never been able to get rid of constipation, pains in my back, indigestion, gas in my stomach and heartburn, till I tried this new medicine Dreco and I believe the first dose did me good. Dreco also worked my liver off, thereby relieving those awful dizzy spells and cleared off my tongue.

"I had catarrh which kept me hawking all the time and clearing my throat. Dreco overcame this for me, and I started my little girl taking it, and there is a big improvement in her. The color has returned to her cheeks; she romps and plays has a good appetite and the catarrh is all gone. I am a strong believer in Dreco."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

Milkoline At 2c a Gallon

Milkoline has a base of pasteurized and sterilized, modified Buttermilk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything of an injurious nature to hogs or poultry.

Aids Digestion: Thousands of the most successful hog raisers from New York to California during the past seven years have proved that Milkoline helps and assists digestion, tending to insure perfect assimilation of feed. It helps tone up the system so that hogs are less subject to disease, and practically insures gains of 2½ pounds per head per day.

University Tested: Professor W. B. Combs, while Asst. Prof. of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University conducted a scientific test on Milkoline and found that Milkoline fed hogs put on more weight and showed 82.5% more profit than hogs not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham, a successful feeder of Middletown, Mo., said $90 worth of Milkoline made him an extra profit of $420. Lee Jackson of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., says Milkoline fixed up a bunch of shoats in fine style and is great for brood sows.

Can't Spoil: Milkoline is guaranteed not to rot, sour or mould. It will keep indefinitely in any climate. Flies do not come near it. It is always uniform, and is guaranteed to make you money or it doesn't cost you anything.

MARKET STATIONS OF VALUE

Branches Reach Out in Every Direction and Constantly Circulate News of Importance.

Market stations maintained by the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture, in several of the leading cities, are well termed "branches." They reach out in every direction from the central office. Connected by wire and mail service, there is constant circulation of vital news, out and returning, between them and the office in Washington. The raw materials, so to speak, are gathered and worked over to make the market reports, reviews, and press articles which are distributed for the benefit of the public. The market station man works from the early stir of activity in the market section until the day's stint is finished. Usually he is a man with considerable technical training and experience in production or marketing.

TIMOTHY IS LOW IN PROTEIN

One of the Poorest Live Stock Feeds Farmer Can Grow—Cannot Be Compared With Alfalfa.

More timothy hay is grown in the United States than all other hays combined and yet timothy is one of the poorest live-stock feeds that the farmer can raise. Its value for feeding purposes cannot be compared with clover or alfalfa. It is low in protein, the nutrient upon which farmers and more especially dairymen must to a large extent rely for the best returns from their herds; it is not very palatable to live stock, except, perhaps, to horses, and it has an undesirable constipating effect upon all classes of animals. Furthermore, it yields less than clover or alfalfa, and it is a fertility destroyer instead of a soil builder. All things considered, it has very little to commend it.

HUNTERS OUGHT TO KNOW OPEN SEASON

Those Not Familiar With Game Laws Will be Arrested for Violating Them

Reveals Facts Hoping All Will Take Her Advice

Mrs. Storms Tells What Trutona Did For Her So Others May Be Benefited

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 9.—"I cannot express my gratitude to the man who compounded this wonderful medicine, Trutona," Mrs. William Storms, a well-known Fort Wayne woman, who lives at 1219 South Calhoun Street, declared recently to a Trutona Representative.

"For twelve years I had suffered from kidney trouble," Mrs. Storms continued. "I would have to walk all bent over, at times, and I'd suffer such pains in my side. For six weeks, I had been unable to get my arms above my head, to do up my hair. I was very restless at night, and would be up and down, all the time, because of my weak kidneys. When I'd lie on my back, a lump seemed to form in my throat, my heart would flutter, and I'd become short of breath. My appetite was so poor, that I seldom cared for anything to eat."

"Hoping everyone will take my word, I'm going to tell just what Trutona, has done for me. I was able to dress my own hair this morning, for the first time in six weeks. I'm sleeping better at night now, than I have for years. I don't have to get up several times during the night, because of my kidneys, either, and the former pains in the small of my back have ceased to bother me. Trutona has given me a wonderful appetite, and in a general way, I feel like a woman that has been granted a new lease on life. I intend to tell everyone, who suffers as I did, all about Trutona the Perfect Tonic."

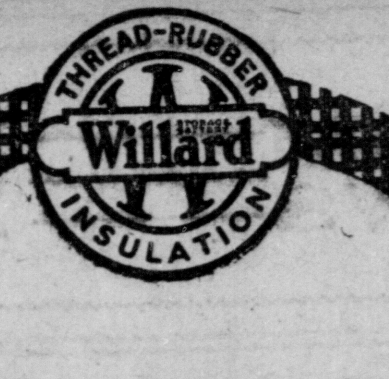

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove & Mullin Druggists.—Adv.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that there has been filed in my office a petition which is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF RUSH COUNTY, INDIANA:

The undersigned, adult citizens and taxpayers of Rush County, Indiana, hereby petition and pray your Honorable Body, for the establishment and maintenance, within such county, of a Memorial Building, for the soldiers and sailors of the war, fought by the United States against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Said building shall be known as a Memorial Hall and shall be in the form of a community building which shall include quarters for:

1. Ex-service men of the war against Germany and Austria-Hungary.
2. The Civil War and Spanish American War Veterans;
3. The Farmers' Federation of Rush County;
4. The Public Library;
5. Rest and recreation room for women;
6. And to provide for all other needs of Rush County Citizens in such a building.

The probable cost of said building to the county to be One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Said building to be constructed and maintained under the provisions of an Act of General Assembly of the State of Indiana approved March 14th, 1919, and published in the Acts of 1919, page 562, providing for Memorials for soldiers and sailors of the war, fought by the United States against Germany and Austria-Hungary.

That said petition will be heard on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13th, and of said hearing all persons interested will take due notice.

Witness my hand and seal at Rushville, Indiana, this 7th day of September, 1920.

IMMIGRATION ON INCREASE.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 10—While there was an increase of more than seventeen thousand immigrants into Canada during the six months ending June 30 over the same period of the year previous, the figures show that the number who came from the United States during that time was 3,000 fewer than during the first six months of 1919.

In reports just made public here, 68,857 persons arrived in Canada in the last 6 months to make their homes.

OHIO EXPERIENCED A HESSIAN FLY OUTBREAK

Entomologists Inspected Wheat Fields and Declared The Fly Killed 44 Percent of Straws

MAKE GREAT CAMPAIGNS

Ohio has just experienced one of the worst Hessian fly outbreaks in its history, says Prof. T. H. Parks, Ohio State university, Entomologists at the Ohio experiment station, and other agricultural experiment stations in the state have inspected wheat fields in 44 counties and determined the intensity of the fly injury in all parts of the state, together with their increase since 1919.

Prof. Parks declares that the spring brood of the fly killed or damaged 44 percent of all the wheat straws the surveyor examined.

In the southern third of the state 22 percent of all the straws were infested; in the central third he asserted 42 percent was damaged, while in the northern part 57 percent suffered.

The fly damage in the northern part was most severe, he explained, because there the most of the wheat became infested last fall, even when sowed one week later than dates usually fly-free while in the southern counties only the early sowed fields were damaged by the fall brood.

The university extension department and other agencies of the farmer are making a great campaign against the Hessian fly by informing the farmers of the most reliable dates to guard against the pest.

NEWSPAPER MAN GIVES OUT FACTS

"I Know What It Will Do For I Have Tried It," Says S. O. Fink.

"I have put Tanlac to the test and know that it can be depended on," was the statement made recently by S. O. Fink, well known newspaper man in the circulation department of the Fort Wayne News and Sentinel, and residing at 603 Huffman St., Fort Wayne, Ind.

"For more than a year I had been in bad health," he continued, "and then last fall I had a severe attack of the 'flu' which left me in a worse condition than ever. Everything I ate hurt me and often I wasn't able to keep anything down. My liver and kidneys also were badly disordered and I had terrible pains across my back. I had a dull headache nearly all the time and often I became so dizzy I had to sit down. My sleep was always restless and when morning came I was all fagged out and felt that I didn't have any strength or energy left.

"One day not long ago one of my friends suggested that I try Tanlac. I took his advice and my appetite picked right up, the indigestion began to leave me and I was soon able to eat anything I pleased without any bad after effects. My liver and kidneys are now in fine condition and the pains have all gone from my back. I don't know what it is to have a headache or dizzy spell now and at night I sleep as sound as I ever did."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dal-las Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

IMPROVEMENT IN ALL STATE CROPS

Corn Shows Increase of 6,206,000 Bushels, According to Co-Operative Reporting Service.

CLOVER SEED YIELD BIGGER

Increase of 109,000 Bushels Over 1919—Corn 88 Per Cent of Normal and Oats 96

The monthly report of the co-operative crop reporting service for Indiana issued today, shows an improvement in nearly all crops over a month ago, the most notable of which are the corn and oats crops; the former shows an increase of 6,206,000 bushels and the latter an increase of 5,605,000 bushels. Clover seed shows an especially large increase over last year, being 109,000 bushels larger. The report follows:

The condition of corn, as a whole, shows a slight improvement over last month, and is due principally to good rains in the southern part of the state. Good rains also occurred in some of the northern counties, but came too late to be of material help. The condition figure for September 1 was 88 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 184,130,000 bushels as compared with 177,924,000 bushels shown for last month and 175,750,000 bushels last year. Along the western and northern and northern part of the state there is some very poor corn, especially on sandy and clay soils, where it is badly fired. The bottom corn generally is in good condition. But little of the crop will mature under three weeks and it will take six weeks for a great deal of it. A killing frost before October 1 would be heavy damage.

Farmers should begin to examine their corn just as soon as possible with a view to selecting their seed for next year.

The condition of spring wheat at time of harvest was 63 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 47,000 bushels compared with 51,000 bushels shown for

August 1, and 228,000 bushels last year. The quality is only fair.

Oats turned out better than was expected in nearly all sections of the state. This is especially true of the early sown oats, which yielded a splendid quality of heavy oats. Late sown oats were much lighter, but generally of good quality. The condition at time of harvest was 96 per cent of normal which indicates a total production of 75,076,000 bushels compared with 69,201,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 60,225,000 bushels for last year.

The condition of barley at the time of harvest was 87 per cent of normal and indicates a crop of 1,656,000 bushels compared with 1,613,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 1,450,000 bushels last year. Practically all of this crop is ground into feed and used on the farm where grown.

Buckwheat is also a minor crop in Indiana. The condition on September 1 was 88 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 252,000 bushels compared with 235,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 231,000 bushels last year.

Due to good rains in the south part of the state, white potatoes show a slightly better condition than last month, notwithstanding the damage from vine rot and wilt, and is 81 per cent of normal. This figure indicates a total production of 8,383,000 bushels compared with 7,704,000 bushels shown for August 1 and 4,400,000 bushels last year.

The condition of sweet potatoes September 1 was 87 per cent of normal. On this figure a total production of 350,000 bushels is indicated compared with 330,000 bushels shown for August 1 and 315,000 bushels last year.

The condition of tobacco September 1 was 88 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 17,957,000 pounds compared with 17,141,000 pounds shown for August 1 and 15,215,000 pounds last year.

All tame hay crops show an average yield of 1.29 tons per acre, with a total indicated production of 2,838,000 tons. Last month's condition figures indicated 2,909,000 tons and last year's crop amounted to 3,080,000 tons. Wild hay averaged 1.2 tons per acre, with a total indicated production of 58,000 tons. Timothy averaged 1.34 tons, clover 1.25 tons and alfalfa 2.50 tons per acre. Generally the crop was of good quality, but some of it was damaged by wet weather after cutting.

The clover seed acreage is somewhat larger than a year ago, with an indicated production of 197,000 bushels compared to 88,000 bushels last year. The condition of pastures remains the same as last month, grain sorghum increased 1 point, millet increased 3 points and field peas and field beans increased 2 points.

Truck crops and melons all show a slight increase in condition over a month ago.

Fruit crops all show a slight increase in condition over a month ago.

Fruit crops all show a slight increase in condition over last month. At this time the total production of apples is estimated at 5,853,000 bushels; peaches, 957,000 bushels; and pears, 664,000 bushels. The condition of grapes is 92 per cent of normal.

The condition of sugar beets shows a decline of 2 points and sorghum cane shows an increase of 2 points for the month.

The number of hogs on hand for fattening is 13 per cent less than a year ago. The total production of wool in 1920 was slightly less than last year.

Desperation.

FUNERAL WILL BE IN HARTFORD CITY

Sad Rites for the Rev. George Sheldon, Rushville Minister, Will be Held Sunday Afternoon

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL ATTEND.

Paralysis, Induced by Spinal Injuries Develops From Accident Near Fort Wayne Monday

The Rev. George F. Sheldon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city, died at one thirty yesterday afternoon at the Hope Methodist hospital in Ft. Wayne, after being fatally injured in an automobile accident 15 miles north of that city Monday afternoon, and funeral services will be conducted in Hartford City Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, with burial being made in Albion, Mich.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon was 53 years old last April and came here last November from Hartford City, and was installed as pastor of the local church, where he had accomplished much during his short stay here.

Following the accident word received here was to the effect that he was not seriously injured, having received a fractured leg and two broken ribs, but internal complications arose which caused paralysis, induced by a hemorrhage of the spine. One of the broken ribs had also pierced his lung and crowded the vicinity of the heart.

The remains were removed last night from the hospital in Ft. Wayne to the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. Mabel Hill in Hartford City. The funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Presbyterian church in that city, and on Monday morning the remains will be shipped to Albion, Mich., for interment.

Church services at the church here Sunday, including the Sunday School, have been called off, and those who will attend the funeral services, have been requested to meet at the church at eight o'clock Sunday morning, and the delegation leave in a body at that hour for Hartford City.

The details of the accident at first were lacking, but today it was learned that the Rev. and Mrs. Sheldon, accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon's aged mother, who is 76 years old, were enroute in their automobile from Michigan to this city, and when within 15 miles from Ft. Wayne, Mr. Sheldon attempted to pass another car, which was coming toward him, and in so doing slipped off of the road, and down a slight embankment.

In attempting to get back on the highway, he put on too much power, and the wheels failed to offer the resistance, and forced the machine upside down, throwing Mr. Sheldon out and pinning him underneath the running board.

Mrs. Sheldon was riding in the front seat and her mother was alone in the rear seat, and both escaped without injury. Mrs. Sheldon stated that their machine was being driven slowly and when they attempted to pass the on-coming car, the Rev. Mr. Sheldon became confused and got too near the edge of the road, and went down along side of the road, and he thought that he could get back on the road on his own power. The accident happened Monday afternoon.

When it was found that he was painfully injured he was taken immediately to the hospital in Fort Wayne, where his injuries were dressed, and were said to be painful but not of a serious nature.

It was presumed by friends here that his condition would improve rapidly, and it was not known until yesterday morning that the internal complications had developed, when Miss Helen Sheldon, the daughter in high school here, was notified to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cowing accompanied the daughter this morning to Hartford City, making the trip in an automobile. A telephone message today from Mrs. Sheldon expressed her regret.

VOTERS EXACT AGE MUST BE GIVEN

State Election Board Rules That Men and Women Can't Vote if Right Age Was Omitted

"OVER 21" WON'T SUFFICE

Another Chance on October 4 Will Enable Voters to Register Again—Few Instances Noted Here

Women's proverbial disinclination of telling their age, which was shown in many instances here Saturday when they registered, will cause them to register over again on October 4, in order to qualify for the ballot on November 2, is the decision reached by the state election committee which met yesterday in Indianapolis and prepared an interpretation of the age feature of the registration law.

The state election board met on request of several county chairmen, who reported that many women refused to give their exact age when registering, and instead of putting down the age, stated that they were "over 21," "old enough to vote" or "21, plus."

In Rush county, as in many counties, the opinion prevailed that it was not necessary for a person to put down their exact age, although men at previous registrations never hesitated in giving their ages.

Only a very few men failed to give their exact ages in this county last Saturday, it is understood, but the same ruling will apply to men, and those who failed to give their exact age will be required to do so on October 4.

MUST ENTER PLEAS IN THE MORNING

Four Men Held in Connection With Knecht Clothing Store Robbery Will Plead in the Morning

TWO ARE IN JAIL HERE

Four alleged criminals will be arraigned before Judge Sparks in circuit court in the morning at nine o'clock, when each of them are to enter a plea, to the charge of burglarizing the Knecht Clothing store here this summer. The four men are Russell Sheppard, Fred and Ed Beemer, all of Muncie, and James Martin of Winchester.

The two Beemer brothers are now out of jail on $3,000 bond furnished in each case, but the other two are in jail, having been held here since their arrest during the Delaware county fair. Judge Sparks ordered them the first of the week to enter a plea on or before Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Martin, it is said, has admitted his guilt in a confession, and will probably enter a plea of guilty. The two Beemer brothers have employed an attorney and will probably put up a fight for their freedom. It is not known what course Sheppard will take. A few weeks ago a jail delivery was caught by Sheriff Jones, in which the prisoners blamed each other for the attempted escape.

IS EQUIPPED TO MEET PROBLEMS

F. C. Munroe, General Manager of American Red Cross, Speaks at Lake Division Conference

THREE FROM HERE ATTENDING

Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—"The American Red Cross has developed, in its experience up to the present a knowledge of actual conditions, at home and abroad, a sense of proportion and a skill and ingenuity in meeting specific problems which cannot be overestimated for value," Frederick C. Munroe, general manager of the American Red Cross summed up in this manner the work facing the Red Cross yesterday, when speaking at the opening session of a two day conference of Lake Division Red Cross chapter delegates in Cincinnati. "The Red Cross has a body of workers and administrators who have been tried out by the hardest kind of experience and who are willing to carry on the humanitarian work of peace time as faithfully as they did in the war years."

The conference has attracted representatives from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Lake Division headquarters called the meeting in order to give chapter people a broad view of peace time work as it is being carried on by other chapters in the division. Speakers from National Headquarters, Division Headquarters and chapters are taking part in the program. Several organizations allied with the Red Cross in carrying on post-war work have speakers on the program. Dr. E. A. Peterson, director of Health Service at National Headquarters explained how a chapter can set up a model Health Center. The relation of Junior Red Cross to the schools was the subject discussed by James N. Rule, National director of Junior Red Cross and by Supt. Vernon Riegel of the Ohio State Department of Education. Miss F. Butler of the Department of Education was also present.

MOTION PICTURE STAR IS VICTIM OF POISON

WAS TOURING IN EUROPE

Paris, Sept. 10.—Olive Thomas, formerly widely known on the American musical comedy stage and for several years a motion picture star, died at 11 o'clock today in the American Hospital at Neuilly. She was taken to that institution last Sunday suffering from the effects of a poisonous solution swallowed early that day by mistake, according to Dr. Joseph Choate, the American physician in charge of the case.

Recently Miss Thomas, who came to Europe with her husband, Jack Pickford several weeks ago, had suffered from nervous depression. It was said. First aid was promptly given her by Mr. Pickford when he returned Sunday to the hotel and found his wife in a serious condition and every possible effort was made at the hospital to counteract the effects of the poison, but without avail.

New York, Sept. 10.—Reports reaching the office of the Selznick moving picture corporation here today stated that Olive Thomas, motion picture star, died in Paris today. No confirmation of the report has been received by the Selznick officials, though a cable from Paris early today stated that Miss Thomas' doctors had given up hopes of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Feudner motored to Middletown this afternoon and visited relatives.

STATE GOAL WAS SET AT $450,000

John Bryson, Chairman of State Ways and Means Committee, Tells of Plans in This State

ONLY $39,000 IS RAISED

Upham Testifies That National Fund For G. O. P. Party Will Not Total $4,879,000

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 10.—Republican campaign funds for national, state, senatorial and congressional campaigns will total $4,879,000 if all the money is raised which is sought, Fred Upham, treasurer of the republican national committee testified today before the senate committee investigating funds.

That sum and not $15,000,000 as charged by Governor James Cox represents the absolute maximum of the republican fund raising plan, Upham stated.

Upham resumes the stand to deny in detail the charges of Governor Cox and E. M. Moore, Cox's personal representative here.

John Bryson, of Brazil, Ind., chairman of the Indiana state ways and means committee, said the plan in Indiana was to raise $100,000 for the republican national committee and $200,000 more for the state work. Less than $39,000 was raised, Bryson declared.

The largest contribution was $2,000. The city sums were based on the total of about $450,000 as a means of stimulating workers but with no expectation of getting it.

Bryson was asked whether the $1,000 rule was followed. He said William Irwin, of Columbus, Ind., gave $2,000 but that no other contribution exceeded $1,000.

Since August 26, Upham disclosed $250,000 has been added to the republican contributions making the total raised to date since the National convention $1,249,000, of which $850,000 was for the national committee and the remainder for the state.

"I still have got to raise $2,150,000 of the $3,079,000 budget, Upham said.

3 DIFFERENT LAND CASES FILED TODAY

Suits Are to Quiet Title, to Partition and Sell Real Estate and to Show an Accounting

PITMAN SEEKS A CHANGE

Three cases were filed in circuit court today, which involve real estate, none of the cases relating to each other. This morning Ralph Pitman, plaintiff in a $10,000 damage suit against Glenn Sommerville, a high school boy of this city, filed a petition in the court, asking for a change of venue from this county.

Pitman is the father of the small boy that was instantly killed in Glenwood last spring by an automobile driven by Sommerville, and the $10,000 damage suit was filed on a complaint for the death of the baby. No action was taken on the petition today.

Chase Pea brought suit today against Maud Jones and her husband Clyde Jones, Ed Pea and his wife Minnie Pea, Rena Jackson and her husband Frank Jackson, in a suit for partition and sale of real estate in this city. The complaint says that the property cannot be divided in shares, and requests that it be sold. The property is said to be valued at $800.

Sarah Ida Murdock has filed suit against George O. Anderson and Emily J. Anderson, on a complaint for partition an accounting for rents and profits of real estate. The land involved contains 45 acres, and the complaint is based on two paragraphs.

William O. Wright filed suit against Elva Herbst on a complaint to quiet the title of some real estate.

OFFICERS KILL A CONVICT

Maple Cox, Escaped Prisoner, Is Shot at Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 10.—Maple Cox, 25, was fatally wounded here today when shot by a policeman after attempting to escape from the indoor store here, into which he and "Jim" Powers had broken. Both were escaped convicts from the state reformatory at Jeffersonville. Two detectives and two patrolmen figured in the chase, all of whom opened fire. Power who escaped is believed to be hiding and injured.

The two convicts escaped from Jeffersonville on August 30. They stole a Ford automobile and went to Muncie, where the former's mother lives. They raided a grocery store last Wednesday night.

ORGANIZATION FOR PICNIC THOROUGH

With Township Chairman as Nucleus Committee of Fifteen is Built up in Each Township

WILL MEET HERE SATURDAY

Ministers and Postoffice Employees, Including Rural Mail Carriers, Are All Invited

There is no lack of organization to make the county picnic at the city park in Rushville, Friday, September 17, a success. The Rush County Farmers Association, which is sponsor for the affair, at which the members will entertain the business men of Rush county, has not only organized a single detail in preparing for the dinner.

The dinner serving committee, of which Will L. Brown of this city is chairman, must bear the brunt of the work, and the committee has been organized carefully, with the township chairman as the nucleus and with helpers appointed so that every spot in the county will be touched. It is this committee which will meet in the court house at two o'clock Saturday afternoon to prepare for soliciting the food and serving the dinner.

Mrs. Bert Davison, living south of Rushville, has been appointed the women's chairman for the committee, which was formed in this way.

Each township chairman appointed a woman chairman for his township and the woman chairman in turn appointed four assistants, selected from the township.

SEARCH IS MADE FOR BANKER'S DAUGHTER

Louise Fletcher, Daughter of Prominent Indianapolis Banker, Disappears From Summer Home.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—Stoughton A. Fletcher, an Indianapolis capitalist and banker today instituted a search for his daughter, Louise, 17, who disappeared from the Fletcher summer home at Gloucester, Mass., after donning overalls and clipping her hair.

Mrs. Fletcher went East today to aid in the search for her daughter. Mr. Fletcher expressed the belief that the girl's disappearance is part of a prank in which some of her girl friends took part.

Police departments in the Eastern cities have been requested to search for the girl. And officials of Rocky Neck have been notified to search for the girl, for it is thought probably she might have drifted out to sea in a skiff.

According to word received here the girl left her summer home and was seen by fishermen near Rocky Neck, more than a mile from home. After clipping her hair and donning overalls the girl shouldered a pair of oars and walked in the direction of Rocky Neck.

CITY TAX RATE TO BE $2.055 IN 1921

Total Levies Are Also Computed For Six Townships Whose Trustees Certify Rates

ALL BUT ONE SHOW INCREASE

Rushville Township is Single Exception, Being Reduced 4 Cents—Rushville City up 35 Cents

The tax rate in the city of Rushville will be $2.055 in 1921, providing the state tax rate is the figure which has been reported in the Indianapolis papers, and providing none of the rates which comprise the levy is changed on a hearing by the county council. The city rate is increased 35 cents.

Six township rates have also been computed. It is impossible to figure what the all township rates will be until the township trustees have certified their levies to the county auditor.

The rates in the six townships, whose trustees have certified their rates to the auditor, and the increase or decreases in each case are as follows:

Rushville, $1.11, a decrease of four cents; Richland, $1.22, an increase of 32 cents; Walker, $1.64, an increase of 56 cents; Posey, $1.40, an increase of 34 cents; Center, $1.06, an increase of 18 cents; Washington, $1.135, an increase of 34 cents.

The Rushville rate is arrived at by adding the state rate of eighteen cents, the county rate of 28 cents, the school city rate of 81 cents, the city rate of 68 cents, the township tax levied in Rushville, which amounts to 34 cents and the general fund and interest tax of 10 cents.

The city rate is composed of 60 cents corporation tax, four cents street oiling and four cents city bonds. The township rate is two cents township tax, one cent township poor and a half cent library tax.

The county rate is composed of 17 cents and two mills county tax and eight mills flood bonds. The school city rate is composed of 45 cents tuition tax, 30 cents special school fund and six cents school bonds. The state rate has never been certified to the auditor here but Indianapolis newspapers have reported it to be 18 cents, the same as last year.

The tuition tax in Posey township was increased from 14 to 25 cents, the special school tax from 18 to 27, the road tax from six to seven, and the township tax was left the same, three cents. The township poor tax of a half cent and the library tax of the same amount were left unchanged. The gravel road bond and interest tax was reduced from 32 to 31 cents.

The tuition tax in Walker township was increased from 15 to 30 cents, the special school tax from 25 to 40 cents, the road tax from seven to fourteen, the township tax from one and a half to three and a half and the school bond tax from seven to ten cents. The library tax of one cent was cut in two and the gravel road bond and interest rate was reduced from eighteen to six cents. The vocational education tax was raised from one and a half to nine cents.

In Rushville township the tuition tax was raised from fourteen to eighteen cents, but the special school tax of seventeen cents, the road tax of six cents, the township poor tax of a half cent and the bond tax of thirteen cents were left at the same figure. The township tax was raised from one and a half to two cents and the gravel road bond and interest tax was cut from thirty to seven cents.

In Center township the tuition tax was raised from nine to sixteen cents, the special school tax from twelve to 22, the road tax from six to nine and the school bond tax from five to six. The township tax of two cents and the township poor tax of one cent were left the same. The gravel road bond and interest rate was reduced from 21 to 20 cents. In Washington township the township tax was raised from 10 to 15 cents. Continued on Page Three

FRENCH HEELS PASS OUT OF EXISTENCE

Milady's Foot Hits The Ground Above a Low or Military Heel, According to Shoe Dealers

IT IS NOT A PASSING FANCY

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10.—Milady's foot hits the ground above a low or military heel, according to Indianapolis shoe dealers. French heels—the high ones with graceful curves—are passe.

The wearer herself sounded their death knell this time. Heretofore the manufacturers have determined the styles of shoes as well as other clothing.

"Manufacturers realize that the low heel craze of the women is not just a passing fancy," James C. Young, head of the shoe department of an Indianapolis store, said today.

"They are unloading their stocks of high heels as rapidly as possible, sometimes at a great sacrifice. One Indianapolis dealer bought 17,000 pairs of high heeled shoes at $2.25 a pair. He kept 12,000 pairs for retail in his own store at a greatly reduced price and turned the remainder over to another store."

Young said the women this year are making a run on the shoes of more durability. He said there is a demand for the kind with a double thickness of leather extending from one side of the foot, across the top and back on the other side to the instep with the outer thickness perforated in fancy little designs.

VOTERS EXACT AGE MUST BE GIVEN

ages, must also register again on October 4, in order to vote in November.

The ruling will no doubt cause much confusion among the voters, and party workers, as the names of all those who registered Saturday have now been certified to the auditor and their names placed on the poll books. It will be necessary to revise the books, and cut off the names where the exact age was not given.

Party workers will also be handicapped, as it had been planned to secure the registration of all men and women who had not registered Saturday, but now it will take additional work to ascertain the number who will be cut off of the registration books for failure to give their exact ages.

The opinion yesterday was given out by W. W. Spencer, Democrat, and William H. Thompson, Republican, who, with the Governor as the ex-officio member, comprise the state board of election commissioners. Maurice E. Tennant, as a member of the state board's legal committee, also concurs in the opinion.

It is the holding of the commissioners that the law requires each voter to give his or her exact age. They contend that the purpose of the requirement is to establish identification of the voter as well as to ascertain that the voter is of legal age. They assert that the giving of the wrong age might permit fraudulent voting. Should a man or woman of 50 years, for example, register as "21, plus," it might be possible, suggests the commissioners for some young voter to go to the poll and vote in the name of an older person who had given his or her name incorrectly.

"We beg to state that it is our opinion that a proper compliance with the registration law of Indiana," reads the opinion of the commissioners, "requires that an applicant for registration shall state in writing his or her age on the last preceding anniversary of his or her birthday. It is not considered as sufficient to state that the applicant was 21 years or over on a certain date prior to the date of registration. See Sec. 10 of the registration law of Indiana."

JOHN C. INGRAM DIES

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett received word today of the sudden death of John C. Ingram of Chicago. Mr. Ingram formerly lived in Indianapolis and had often visited in this city, and was the father-in-law of Mrs. Horace Ingram, formerly Miss Martha Marr Hogsett of this city. Mr. Ingram was president of an insurance organization in Chicago, and his death was quite a shock to the friends in this city.

3 BANDITS BLOW FARMERS' SAFE

Trio Blinds Man and Wife in Chairs and Escape in Auto.

Three bandits tonight blew the safe in the farm house of August Scholes near here and got away with $3,000.

According to Harry J. Frandt, county attorney, the loot consisted of $4,500 in currency, $1,100 in Liberty bonds, $300 in War Savings Stamps, $1,500 in a Certificate of Deposit. Papers, including the deed to the farm, fire insurance policy on the buildings and stock and personal papers were taken.

Cash in on this farmer's experience and put your currency in the bank, for the $1,500 in a Certificate of Deposit is still his and earning interest for him. No one has ever lost a cent they deposited with us; also, a box in our Safe Deposit Vault is far stronger than any home or office safe.

Cox as Mud Slinger

The New York Journal of Commerce, which labels itself as an independent, but which has given every evidence for the past few years of being Democratic, is to be commended for its criticism of Governor Cox's "proofs" of a gigantic "slush" fund being raised by the Republican party. The Journal of Commerce does not swallow the "proofs" as avidly as does Frank Cobb, of the New York World, a paper which was pledged by the late Joseph Pulitzer "always to fight demagogues of all parties". "Firmly and positively, it is likely, will the electorate refuse to permit the red herring to be drawn across the political trail in this campaign", says the Journal of Commerce.

meres. "There are important things to be settled. It wants to hear the candidates discuss them. The public does not want to hear this sort of stuff. The progress of the present campaign is emphasizing the disgust that many men are feeling with present tendencies in American politics." Considering the conservatism of the paper, that is a smart rap on the head of the Tammany candidate. In this connection, it is to be noted that the New York Times (Dem.) seems also to be somewhat out of patience with the antics of the Democratic candidate. The feeling is pervasive that Cox has sought by resort to a campaign of mud-slinging to distract public attention from the fact that as a historian he is a misfit, and as a statesman he is a false alarm.

The Laugh on the Profitier

Joy reigns in the heart of the American housewife.

She is mightily pleased—even tickled—and all because of sugar.

Every day she reads in the daily papers of how the falling sugar market is squeezing the profiteering gamblers who loaded up on that staple and have been withholding it from the market in order to compel her to pay exorbitant prices and clean up fortunes for themselves in a few months time.

She reads that many of these gambling hoarders have lost large sums of money through the slump in price, others are in financial distress, and some are on the verge of ruin.

And she smiles. Their frantic wails are as sweet to her ears as is the taste of honey to a hungry bear.

Joy be with you. Laugh on, and

CAMPAIGN PICKUPS

Neway Notes Of The Major Presidential Candidates.

On Harding's Front Porch

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The Hardings have opened a lodging house at Marion. They have more guests dropping in than they can take care of at their own home and local hotel facilities are inadequate, so a private house near the Harding home has been leased for the campaign where arriving celebrities can be put up for the night.

Senator Harding has been riding around in a little four cylinder automobile lately. His big high-powered car had to be sent to the shop for repairs.

A presidential candidate gets a lot of knocks but he also gets many other things. Every mail brings a box of cigars, a big carton of cigarettes, a watermelon or a chicken for Mrs. Harding's table.

Harding's stenographers are getting lots of candy out of it. More come than Mrs. Harding can eat so she sends the rest to the girls.

Entertaining a well-known Democrat as a personal guest recently, Harding took occasion to tell an old mule story used by stump speakers in the days when politics was not so lady-like as now.

"The Democratic party," this orator declared, "is like the mule. It has neither pride of ancestry nor hope of posterity."

Harding does not like to discuss his golf scores. If he wins he feels unsportsmanlike in boasting; and if he loses, he waits for someone else to tell it. But newspapermen have discovered how to find out. Harding makes it a rule on the links to smoke a cigarette only when he wins a hole.

"Senator, how many cigarettes did you smoke?" is the favorite

From the Cox Camp

By HERBERT W. WALKER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

The publicity agent, such a familiar figure in most presidential campaigns, has not yet appeared in the Cox camp. The governor is his own "agent" and correspondents have been agreeably surprised to find that they do not have to knock over a long line of "funkies" to get the governor's view on an important question, when speed is necessary.

When the train on which Governor Cox was riding recently stopped at Howard, O., an old man came running toward the rear platform almost shouting to his friend as he introduced him to Cox:

"Take a good look at him, John, for he's going to lay your man low!"

If there is a shortage of fried chicken during the next few weeks, the Republicans probably can blame Governor Cox. On five out of his seven stump visits, the local reception committees gave him big chicken dinners.

Hecklers, the terror of most public speakers, apparently are the delight of Cox. In every speech he watches for every sign of heckling, and several times has invited it.

The governor apparently has no "Prince Alberts" in his traveling trunk. For all of his speeches he has worn a plain, business suit.

Stogies and a little black pipe are the governor's favorite "smokes".

Cox always shakes hand with the engineer and fireman of his when he reaches his destination.

candidate. In the absence of babies he can kiss the voters.

Any person can give good advice, but it's quite a different thing to set a good example.

Life is full of disappointments only to those who permit themselves to feel disappointed.

If we ever reach the point where automobiles are run on wind some politicians will outdistance even themselves.

In some future generation, we presume, a violent and determined campaign will be launched in favor of equal opportunities for males.

The Tri Kappa sorority will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Miss Fanny Stiers southeast of the city.

Mrs. George Guffin had as her dinner guests today Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Parry and son George of Indianapolis and her house guests, Mrs. Harold Mauzy and Mrs. George J. Guffin of Gary, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Endres entertained at Bridge last night for Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore also had several guests at dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Moor.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church held their first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church. A very appropriate program was given and a large attendance was present for the first meeting.

The Sexton Missionary society will hold an all day meeting next Tuesday, September 14. The program will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pratt, which will be conducted between 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. The program will consist of a talk on "New Emphasis on the Use of Money," and Mrs. Agnes Gardner will talk on "Giving." Others on the program are Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Warriack and Mrs. Kendall. Mrs. Carroll Clifton will have charge of the program. At 11:30 a. m. a bountiful pitch-in dinner will be served at the home of Mrs. Pratt and in the afternoon a special program will be given at the church in Sexton. Members of the different societies of the church will be entertained at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Butler Hill celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday afternoon and evening during the hours of 3 to 5 and 7 to 10, at their home in Walnut street, in Carthage. In keeping with the occasion, the home was decorated throughout with French baskets of marigolds, field daisies and golden rod. Small golden bells were given as favors and refreshments of punch and wafers were served. Music was furnished throughout the afternoon and evening by Miss Harriet Rawls at the piano, accompanied by her sister, Miss Jeannette on the violin.

Many guests were present from their home town and also many were present from a distance. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gurley, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Reeves of Greenfield, Ind., Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Porter and daughter Jean of Connersville; Mrs. Fred Holt and Albert Henley of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary G. Murdock of Randolph, Ohio; Mrs. Walter B. Hill of Knightstown; Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Sparks and Judge and Mrs. Will M. Sparks of Rushville; Mrs. Rebecca Biford, sister of Mrs. Hill of Greenfield, and Mrs. C. H. Grant, twin sister of Mr. Hill of Little Rock, Arkansas.

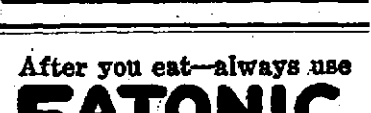

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hill remembered them with many beautiful presents.

Amusements

Nazimova at the Princess

Again Nazimova has come to the screen and carried her audience fairly out of itself by the sheer power of her emotional depths and the finish of her performance. Last evening, at the Princess Theatre, this great Russian star justified once more her right to be acclaimed the world's greatest actress when she appeared in her most recent production, "The Heart of a Child," a photoplay adapted by Charles Bryant from the novel by Frank Danby. The picture will be shown again tonight at the Princess.

To see it is to live through the struggle Sally Snape made against the world's attack, at once so alluring and so sinister, with only the armor of her inborn sense of right to guard her.

The photoplay by Rudolph Bergquist, is exceptionally artistic, as are the special effects by Allen Ruff. Ray C. Smallwood has displayed unusual abilities in the direction, and those who remember Frank Danby's greatest book in its fiction form will be thankful to Charles Bryant for his intelligent and able adaptations to the screen of the best of it.

"The Amazing Woman"

Who sets the moral code? By what right has one man to lay down a law that others must follow? Has any one the right to do evil that good may come? These are the problems set forth in "The Amazing Woman," the super-feature that comes to the Mystic theatre today. The gripping drama of human emotions has the splendid art of Ruth Clifford, a screen star of the first magnitude, together with the acknowledged ability of Lloyd Carleton in directing her and the large cast of well-known screen artists who have been employed to characterize the vital characters supplied to this story by the author.

"The Amazing Woman" is no ordinary story. It is totally unlike any other photodrama produced in many years. It is chock full of suspense. Nothing in the early part of the picture gives any suggestion of how it is going to end. The story is just as baffling as the woman that is the heroine of the tale. The settings are rich and luxuriant. The locale of the play is laid in New York and suburbs. It depicts life as it really is among the rich, who lead the idle life. Its heroine is graced with beauty and feminine charms such as have led men to go to desperate ends to possess women of this kind. She in her turn capitalizes her personality and magnetism and lures men on to taunt them in the end for failing to achieve their purpose. She is good when she is bad and bad when she is good, and this strange creature is after all the eternal woman who has kept man guessing for all ages.

IS EQUIPPED TO MEET PROBLEM

At a dinner meeting Thursday evening, Dr. Thomas E. Green, national director of the Speakers' Bureau delivered an eloquent address on Red Cross Service.

One of the features of the conference was a dramatic pageant "The Red Cross of Peace" staged Thursday evening by 200 members of Cincinnati chapter under direction of Mrs. Ruth M. Worrell of Dayton, Ohio. Adjoining the conference room are exhibits of a Red Cross Health Center, First Aid booth, a model Home Hygiene Teaching exhibit, a Home Service information booth. Red Cross films are being shown continuously throughout the sessions.

In speaking of the meeting, Starr Cadwallar, manager of Lake Division says, "The conference is destined to have a far reaching effect in Lake Division, bringing, as it does representatives from all parts of the three states for the interchange of ideas and plans."

The local chapter is represented at the meeting by Mrs. Marian M. Jones, secretary; the Rev. L. E. Brown, president, and George C. Wyatt, chairman of the home service committee.

HARD TO WORK IN A WORTHY "SUB"

White Sox and Cubs Find it a Rare Thing to Shift Line-up With a New Player

GOOD "SUBS" ARE JUST LUCK.

Strunk Fit Well For White Sox and Mitchell Supplied Field Position For Cubs

By L. H. CLANCHARD (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Sept. 10—Some day some anxious-smith will turn out a finished product like this:

"A machine is no greater than its emergency equipment." It certainly looks true whether you are talking of emergency brakes and spare wheels on autos, an extra piece of chicken for the unexpected caller or a reserve player for a disrupted ball team.

Every ball team has its reserves but only a few have a sub that can step into a regular's job and so deliver that none misses the regular. Every manager would like to have such subs but his desires are vetoed by the lack of stars if not by the club owner's chronic illness—tightening of the purse strings.

"Kid" Gleason this summer had White Sox fans guessing when he grabbed Amos Strunk. "Kid" had a regular outfield going great, and an extra pair of men to pinch hit and alternate in right field. One outfielder became a first baseman and an injury to Nemo Liebold shoved Strunk into the game. The Sox cylinders haven't missed a stroke.

In the same way Fred Mitchell of the Cubs acquired Zeb Terry when it looked that Chicago had a plethora of infield material. Injury came to just the right place to put Terry into the regular list where he has been a whale.

Not all managers have been so wise—or lucky—in their selection of excess help. They had a spare wheel when they needed a tow rope—they weren't set for the particular emergency that chose to land on them.

STATE GOAL WAS SET AT $450,000

Continued on Page Six Usually he said the eastern portion of the United States provides the bulk of the party funds. This year the East has given $438,000 and the Middle West and the West $511,000.

Upham asserted that the $1,000 limit on the contributions has been very closely adhered to.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD IN HARTFORD CITY

Continued from Page One pressed her sincere regret that the funeral could not be held here. Besides the widow and daughter who live here, the deceased is survived by a son Robert of Lansing, Mich., a daughter Clara Sheldon of Fort Wayne and a step-daughter Mrs. Hill in Hartford City.

ORGANIZATION FOR PICNIC THOROUGH

Continued from Page One lecting them not only because of their ability to do things, but with a thought to the location of their home so that every community in the township might be reached. Then each of these four assistants and the woman chairman appointed two assistants, which makes a total of fifteen workers in each township or a total of one hundred and eighty on the committee. The canvass of each township for food will be left to the fifteen women and they will preside at their township tables the day the dinner is served.

Every member of the Rush County Farmers association will be "tagged" that day. Button hole labels have been printed and the name of each member is being written on them. They will be given to the township chairmen at the meeting Saturday and distributed by mail to them. Under this plan there will be no occasion for any member not being properly "labeled."

The merchants will follow the same plan and every one will wear a card bearing his name.

"There is no reason for any farmer not being in on this dinner, which will be the biggest thing ever pulled off in Rushville," said Fred Bell, president of the county association, today. "The only reason for him being left out is that he is not a member and the wisest thing for him to do is to join at once and enjoy the day."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Harrold visited in Indianapolis today and attended the state fair.

FARMERS PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

Officers of State Federation Start
Preliminary Work For Meeting
November 16

WILL BE AT MASONIC TEMPLE

Brown County, Last in State, is Being Organized and Will Join Indiana
Organization

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 10—The preliminary work of getting ready for the second annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations to be held at the Masonic Temple auditorium in this city on November 16 has been started by the officers of the organization. The present indications are that the convention this year will surpass by far any meeting ever held in the state of Indiana by farmers, and there is every reason to believe that the coveted goal of 100 percent organized state with 92 counties officially represented by accredited delegates will have been attained prior to the convention date.

Arrangements have just been completed by the state organizers for the formation of a farmers' association in Brown County. Chas. A. Sims, of Odon, and Joseph Ratliff, of Bloomington, have been assigned by state officers to make a campaign in Brown County this week. The addition of Brown will mean that every county in the state is either organized, all of which has been accomplished in less than two years of activity. The exact date of the birth of the Federation was March 25, 1919.

The first committee work as a preliminary to state convention activities was accomplished during the last week when the special committee appointed by the executive board to draft proposed changes in the state constitution met at headquarters and considered the recommendations it will make. These recommendations for changes in the constitution will be submitted to the board of directors whose approval must be met before it goes to the state convention for ratification. A two-thirds vote of the accredited delegates is necessary to make any change in the constitution. The committee on constitution changes was made up of E. E. Reynolds, Chairman; Scott Meiks, Shelbyville, and E. A. Williams, of Lebanon.

Considerable rivalry among the various county units for leading the state in the way of membership has been reported and there is quite a bit of speculation as to which county will have the greatest official representation in the state convention. The constitution provides for one delegate for every 500 members or major portion thereof in each county, with each county affiliated entitled to at least one delegate regardless of the size of its membership. The latest report is that Hamilton County has surpassed Madison County for first honors in the state with a membership passing the 2,000 mark. Hamilton expect to better this mark and have five voting delegates at the state convention.

Word from John G. Brown, president of the Indiana farmers, who is in California studying various marketing conditions with other farm bureau leaders, is to the effect that a trip was made during the last week into the San Joaquin valley where agriculture closely resembles that of the Central States. At Hanford the delegates learned about a co-operative system of marketing live stock used in that section by farmers. They witnessed a hog auction conducted under the auspices of the California Farm Bureau Marketing Association, which is said to have grown from a few members in three years to an organization which last year marketed $2,000,000 worth of hogs.

Commenting on the plan, President Brown said, "While this auction plan is hardly adapted to the big hog producing sections of the Middle West, where the present central stock yards system already gives us a competitive market. I believe that this California plan could easily be adapted to many sections of the country where such conditions do not prevail. I believe that in the South and the Atlantic states the California plan would work to the advantage of the pork producers."

Gave It To His Little Daughter

Five year old girl had bad case of catarrh in the head, no appetite, weak and pale. Father got great relief himself from Dreco and that is why he gave it to her.

"I got so much good from taking Dreco that I put my little five year old girl to taking it and there is a big difference in her now," said Mr. Willis Baker, the well known concrete contractor of 1318 East Marklin St., Kokomo, Ind.

"I had never been able to get rid of constipation, pains in my back, indigestion, gas in my stomach and heartburn, till I tried this new medicine Dreco and I believe the first dose did me good. Dreco also worked my liver off, thereby relieving those awful dizzy spells and cleared off my tongue.

"I had catarrh which kept me hawking all the time and clearing my throat. Dreco overcame this for me, and I started my little girl taking it, and there is a big improvement in her. The color has returned to her cheeks; she romps and plays has a good appetite and the catarrh is all gone. I am a strong believer in Dreco."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

Save feed and get your hogs ready for market in less time. Prove at our risk that you can save fully one third your feed, making it possible to feed every third hog free by feeding

Milkoline At 2c a Gallon

Milkoline has a base of pasteurized and sterilized, modified Buttermilk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything of an injurious nature to hogs or poultry.

Aids Digestion: Thousands of the most successful hog raisers from New York to California during the past several years have proved that Milkoline helps and assists digestion, tending to insure perfect assimilation of feed. It helps tone up the system so that hogs are less subject to disease, and practically insures gains of 2 1/2 pounds per head per day.

University Tested: Professor W. B. Combs while Asst. Prof. of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University conducted a scientific test on Milkoline and found that Milkoline fed hogs put on more weight and showed 22.7% more profit than hogs not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham, a successful feeder of Middletown, Mo., said $30 worth of Milkoline made him an extra profit of $20. Lee Jackson of Washington Falls, N. Y., says Milkoline fixed up a bunch of shoats in fine style and is great for brood sows.

Can't Spoil: Milkoline is guaranteed not to rot, sour or mold. It will keep indefinitely in any climate. Hogs do not come near it. It is always uniform, and is guaranteed to make you money or it doesn't cost you anything.

MARKET STATIONS OF VALUE

Branches Reach Out in Every Direction and Constantly Circulate News of Importance.

Market stations maintained by the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture, in several of the leading cities, are well termed "branches." They reach out in every direction from the central office. Connected by wire and mail service, there is constant circulation of vital news, out and returning, between them and the office in Washington. The raw materials, so to speak, are gathered and worked over to make the market reports, reviews, and press articles which are distributed for the benefit of the public. The market station man works from the early stir of activity in the market section until the day's stint is finished. Usually he is a man with considerable technical training and experience in production or marketing.

TIMOTHY IS LOW IN PROTEIN

One of the Poorest Live Stock Feeds Farmer Can Grow—Cannot Be Compared With Alfalfa.

More timothy hay is grown in the United States than all other hays combined and yet timothy is one of the poorest live-stock feeds that the farmer can raise. Its value for feeding purposes cannot be compared with clover or alfalfa. It is low in protein, the nutrient upon which farmers and more especially dairymen must to a large extent rely for the best returns from their herds. It is not very palatable to live stock, except, perhaps, to horses, and it has an undesirable constipating effect upon all classes of animals. Furthermore, it yields less than clover or alfalfa, and it is a fertility destroyer instead of a soil builder. All things considered, it has very little to commend it.

Reveals Facts Hoping All Will Take Her Advice

Mrs. Storms Tells What Trutona Did For Her So Others May Be Benefited

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 9.—"I cannot express my gratitude to the man who compounded this wonderful medicine, Trutona," Mrs. William Storms, a well-known Fort Wayne woman, who lives at 1219 South Calhoun Street, declared recently to a Trutona Representative.

"For twelve years I had suffered from kidney trouble," Mrs. Storms continued. "I would have to walk all bent over, at times, and I'd suffer such pains in my side. For six weeks, I had been unable to get my arms above my head, to do up my hair. I was very restless at night, and would be up and down, all the time, because of my weak kidneys. When I'd lie on my back, a lump seemed to form in my throat, my heart would flutter, and I'd become short of breath. My appetite was so poor, that I seldom cared for anything to eat."

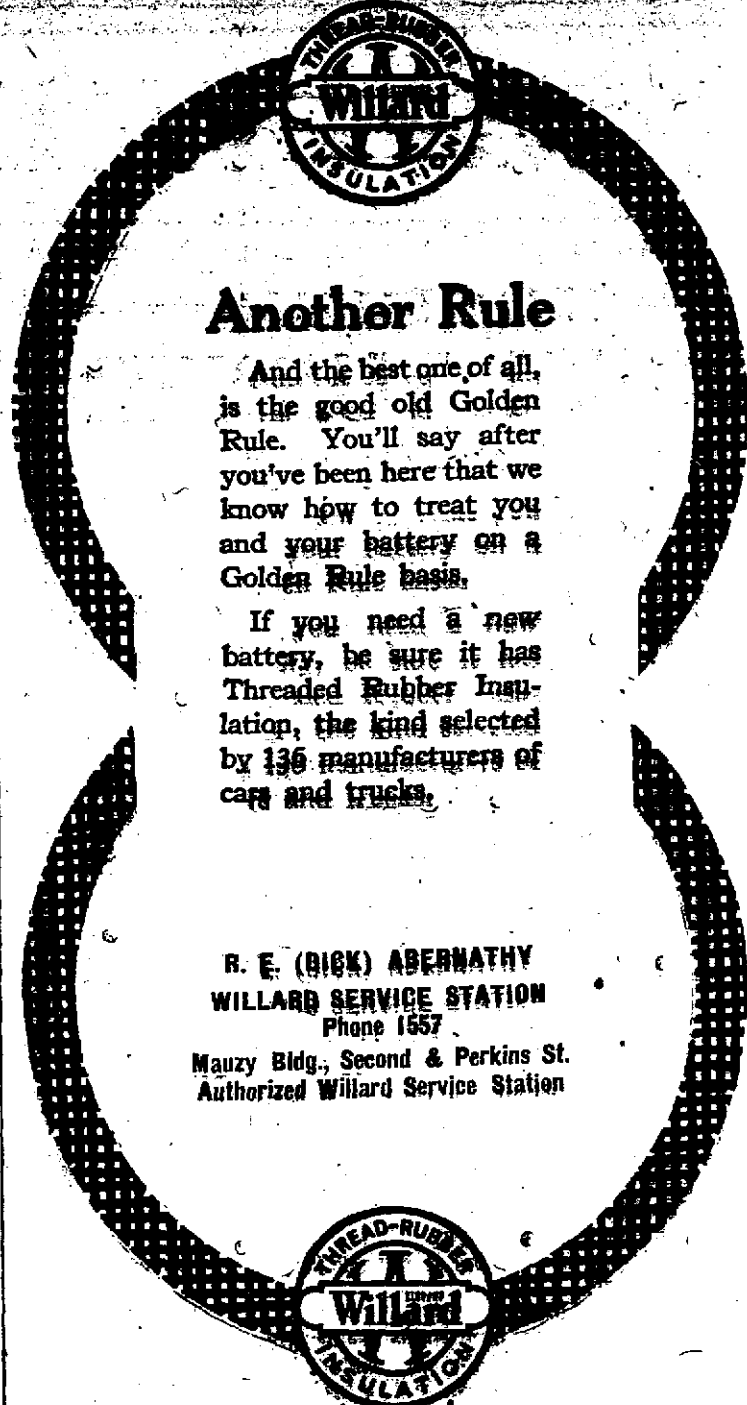

"Hoping everyone will take my word, I'm going to tell just what Trutona, has done for me. I was able to dress my own hair this morning, for the first time in six weeks. I'm sleeping better at night now, than I have for years. I don't have to get up several times during the night, because of my kidneys, either, and the former pains in the small of my back have ceased to bother me. Trutona has given me a wonderful appetite, and in a general way, I feel like a woman that has been granted a new lease on life. I intend to tell everyone, who suffers as I did, all about Trutona the Perfect Tonic."

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove & Mullin Druggists.—Adv.

IMMIGRATION ON INCREASE

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 10—While there was an increase of more than seventeen thousand immigrants into Canada during the six months ending June 30 over the same period of the year previous, the figures show that the number who came from the United States during that time was 3,000 fewer than during the first six months of 1919.

In reports just made public here, 68,857 persons arrived in Canada in the last 6 months to make their homes.

Railroad Man Gives Good Advice

"Several weeks ago I was under treatment of a stomach specialist for 5 months, 3 weeks of which were spent in a hospital. Another stomach specialist told me I had gall stones and that an operation was necessary. I did not want to have this. I lost 45 lbs. in weight. Talking with a brakeman one day he told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and since taking it I have gained 16 lbs. and am feeling fine. I am advising others to try it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at druggists everywhere. —(Adv.)

IMPROVEMENT IN ALL STATE CROPS

Corn Shows Increase of 6,206,000 Bushels, According to Co-Operative Reporting Service.

CLOVER SEED YIELD BIGGER

Increase of 109,000 Bushels Over 1919—Corn 88 Per Cent of Normal and Oats 96

The monthly report of the co-operative crop reporting service for Indiana issued today, shows an improvement in nearly all crops over a month ago, the most notable of which are the corn and oats crops; the former shows an increase of 6,206,000 bushels and the latter an increase of 5,605,000 bushels. Clover seed shows an especially large increase over last year, being 109,000 bushels larger. The report follows:

The condition of corn, as a whole, shows a slight improvement over last month, and is due principally to good rains in the southern part of the state. Good rains also occurred in some of the northern counties, but came too late to be of material help. The condition figure for September 1 was 88 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 184,130,000 bushels as compared with 177,924,000 bushels shown for last month and 175,750,000 bushels last year. Along the western and northern and northern part of the state there is some very poor corn, especially on sandy and clay soils, where it is badly fired. The bottom corn generally is in good condition. But little of the crop will mature under three weeks and it will take six weeks for a great deal of it. A killing frost before October 1 would do heavy damage.

Farmers should begin to examine their corn just as soon as possible with a view to selecting their seed for next year.

The condition of spring wheat at time of harvest was 63 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 47,000 bushels compared with 51,000 bushels shown for

August 1, and 228,000 bushels last year. The quality is only fair.

Oats turned out better than was expected in nearly all sections of the state. This is especially true of the early sown oats, which yielded a splendid quality of heavy oats. Late sown oats were much lighter, but generally of good quality. The condition at time of harvest was 96 per cent of normal which indicates a total production of 75,076,000 bushels compared with 69,201,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 60,225,000 bushels for last year.

The condition of barley at the time of harvest was 87 per cent of normal and indicates a crop of 1,656,000 bushels compared with 1,613,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 1,450,000 bushels last year. Practically all of this crop is ground into feed and used on the farm where grown.

Buckwheat is also a minor crop in Indiana. The condition on September 1 was 88 per cent of normal and indicates a total production of 252,000 bushels compared with 235,000 bushels shown for August 1, and 231,000 bushels last year.

MR. BUYER OR SELLER,
Rush County, Indiana.

Dear Sir:—When you buy or sell real estate now, you will need an abstract of title. Especially if you sell. I have been in the abstract of title business in Rush County for 20 years. During this time I have made abstracts of title for many of your acquaintances. Talk to any of them and when you need an abstract of title I will be glad to have your order. My office is No. 111 N. Main Street, Rushville.

Yours truly,

LOUIS C. LAMBERT.

PREPARE FOR WINTER WEEK

SEPTEMBER 11TH to 18TH

Eight days of opportunity for you to see and study the wonderful fuel-saving Calorific Pipeless Furnace.

—to learn how you can save 1/3 to 1/2 your fuel.

Learn how you can have summer warmth (70° guaranteed) in your home in coldest weather—how you can banish the dirt and drudgery of old-style heating methods.

Beginning Saturday, September 11th; and continuing eight days, we will hold special Calorific "Prepare for Winter" exhibits at our store. Everybody welcome! Come—we'll be looking for you.

The ever-rising cost of fuel makes scientific Calorific heating a modern necessity. Used in over 100,000 homes. The Calorific guarantee—"Your satisfaction or money back."
